JOHN SMITHS GRAND NATIONAL AINTREE RACECOURSE
THURSDAY 12th - SATURDAY 14th APRIL 2012

All three days of the John Smith's Grand National meeting are unique in their own way, and with every day featuring racing over the famous Grand National fences, you'll be spoilt for choice!

Liverpool Day Thursday 12th April

Now in its third year, Liverpool Day brings city-inspired entertainment to the world famous racecourse. Alongside an exciting card of racing, which includes the £150,000 totesport Bowl, past entertainment line-ups have included a parade of the city's most well-known sporting legends, celebrity openers and performances from Mersey bands including The Bootleg Beatles and The Farm. What's more, 2012 promises to be even bigger and better...

Ladies Day Friday 13th April

April's Friday Favourite: it's Ladies' Day at Aintree, of course! Raceday fashions provide a spectacle of colour in the Red Rum Garden with huge prizes up for grabs for Aintree's most stylish racegoers in the Style Contest, whilst big feature races on the card - including The John Smith's Melling Steeple Chase - provide plenty of excitement on the racecourse.

John Smiths Grand National Day Saturday 14th April

Forty of the world's best racehorses, forty colourful silks to choose from, forty top jockeys to cheer along, and one name that you'll no doubt be shouting out as the winner of the World's Greatest Steeple Chase crosses the finishing line. They'll be 600-million people watching worldwide, but there's only one place where you can feel the roar of the crowd vibrate and the goosebumps surface as the biggest race event of the year sets off at 4.15pm on this special day in April.

Created for your comfort and enjoyment, there's no better place to experience the John Smith's Grand National meeting than from one of our restaurants. Prices quoted are per person, and all restaurant packages, unless otherwise stated, include:

- A course facing facility with viewing balcony,
- Coffee and pastries/biscuits on arrival,
- Three course lunch with wine,
- Complimentary bar* with waitress service,
- Afternoon tea,
- Racecard,
- Steeplechase car park label, and,
- Tote betting facilities.

*11am to start of final race - does not include Champagne, liqueurs and tobacco.

One per couple.
