

Ascot Races: Autumn / Winter Friday Racing 2010

Private Box

Friday 24 September; Friday 19 November

Your package will include:

- Private box for dining and viewing
- Premier Admission box badge
- One car park label per couple
- Morning coffee and biscuits
- Three course luncheon
- A selection of house wines during lunch
- Afternoon tea
- Complimentary house wines excluding champagne (see above), Heineken larger, Fullers London Pride bitter and soft drinks throughout the day
- Tote betting facilities on the bridges connecting the north and south side of the stand
- Racecards
- Racing papers
- Floral arrangement

Friday 24 September: Transformers & Rectifiers Day featuring the 4th Annual CAMRA Beer Festival

The feature race is the Listed Princess Royal EBF Transformers & Rectifiers Stakes run over one and a half miles for fillies and mares.

This is the start of the fourth Annual Beer Festival in association with CAMRA and Fuller's; expect more than just exciting racing at this extensive regional Beer Festival as you sup on an array of speciality beers!

The wide variety of over 180 real ales, ciders and perriers includes "Sump" from Pitstop Brewery in Wantage, who return to defend the title of the Ascot Racecourse Beer of the Festival. This prestigious title is awarded by racegoers across the weekend so competition in 2010 will be fierce.

Between racing customers will be serenaded by Hoover the Dog. An English folk band as they enjoy the festival.

Friday 19th November: Allied Irish Bank Meeting featuring a Christmas Shopping Village

The first day of The Allied Irish Bank Meeting features The Allied Irish Bank Handicap Chase and The Allied Irish Bank Handicap Hurdle.

The Allied Irish Bank meeting features a Christmas Shopping Village, with a range of over 35 unique handcrafted quality gift stalls in association with The Travelling Souk. So between races, why not lose yourself in the delights of Christmas shopping in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere?

The Irish gig band, Murphy's Marbles will also be performing throughout the day.

Package Price Per Person

£230+vat (ex VAT)

Based on the minimum number of 10