

The Proms Spectacular

Castle Howard
Saturday 21st August 2010

The Great British Proms Spectacular will be held on Saturday 21st August 2010 and will be an evening of unrivalled entertainment, taking the ever-popular Proms Spectacular format and adding lots more elements to making it the best and biggest ever held. New for 2010 will be a pre-concert performance by the Band of the Corps of Royal Engineers; a spectacular parachute drop over the arena by the RAF Falcons; state of the art stunning special effects; and more fireworks than ever before lighting up the skies over Castle Howard. All this together with conductor Jae Alexander, The English National Orchestra; tenor Wynne Evans and soprano Janet Mooney performing a superb programme of popular classics, movie themes and all the traditional favourites associated with The Last Night Of The Proms.

The evening will climax with a dramatic grand firework finale. There is no finer way to spend a summers evening with your friends and family, so don't miss out on this spectacular Proms picnic party.

Essential concert information:

Car parks open at 4pm

Gates open at 5pm

The main Proms programme will commence at 7.30pm

The concert will finish at approximately 10.30pm
