Ascot Racecourse

16th – 20th June 2009

Royal Ascot Village

Set in the heart of the racecourse on the Heath, the Royal Ascot Village is a popular facility incorporating private chalets for 30 or more guests and a restaurant facility offering tables of 10. It enjoys viewing from an area alongside the track, facing the new Grandstand and provides racegoers with ticket access to the General Admission area on the south side of the track, where the Parade Ring and Winner's Enclosure are located.

The Royal Ascot Village package includes:

- Reserved table for 10 in the restaurant or a private chalet within the Royal Ascot Village
- Private viewing area
- General admission
- One car park label per couple
- Morning coffee and biscuits
- Champagne reception with canapés
- Four course luncheon
- Selected fine wines
- Port or brandy with coffee
- Traditional afternoon tea
- Complimentary bar throughout the day including champagne (until 30 minutes after the last race)
- Royal Ascot Magazine
- Television viewing
- Betting facilities
- Hostess service
- Racecard
- Racing papers
- Floral decorations

Positioned in the centre of the track, the Royal Ascot Village offers a facility close to the action, with access across the track into the new Grandstand. It offers private chalets for either 30 or 50 guests, or tables of 10 in the restaurant. Smaller groups will be on shared tables.
